ARBN 625 401 818 (Company) and its related bodies corporate (Nyrada Group) and to set out the composition, roles, responsibilities and operation of the Committee. Until such time that a Committee is constituted, the Board will act in its place.

2. Role of the Committee

The Committee has two broad roles as set out below.

2.1 Nomination role

The Committee's nomination role is to assist and advise the Board on the following:

- (a) director selection and appointment practices;
- (b) induction and continuing professional development programs for directors;
- (c) director performance evaluation processes and criteria;
- (d) Board composition, performance and effectiveness; and
- (e) succession planning for the Board and the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and senior management to ensure that the Board is of a size and composition conducive to making appropriate decisions, with the benefit of a variety of perspectives and skills and in the best interest of the Company as a whole.

2.2 Remuneration role

The Committee's remuneration and HR role is to assist and advise the Board to ensure that the Company adopts and implements remuneration policies for the Company and the Nyrada Group which:

- (a) attract, retain and motivate high calibre executive and directors so as to encourage enhanced performance and, as a consequence, facilitate in the attraction and retention of high performing employees;
- (b) are consistent with human resource needs, meet statutory requirements and adhere to the Company's policies and procedures;
- (c) motivate directors and management to pursue the long-term growth and success of the Group within an appropriate control framework; and
- (d) demonstrate a clear relationship between key executive performance and remuneration, compensation and benefits.

3. Authority

The Committee is authorised by the Board to fulfil all activities within the scope of this Charter. It is authorised to seek any information it requires from any employee and all employees are directed to cooperate with any request made by the Committee.

The Committee is authorised by the Board to obtain outside legal or other independent professional advice and to secure the attendance of outsiders with relevant experience and expertise at meetings of the Committee if it considers this necessary.

The Committee is required to make recommendations to the Board on all matters within this Charter.

4. Composition of the Committee

4.1 Membership

The Committee shall be appointed by the Board from among the directors of the Company. The Committee shall consist of not less than three members, with a majority of the members being independent non-executive directors.

The Board may appoint one member of senior management of the Company to be a member of the Committee if they deem that their expertise is crucial in adding value to the Committee.

Each member of the Committee is expected to be familiar with the legal and regulatory disclosure requirements in relation to remuneration and have adequate knowledge of executive remuneration issues, including executive remuneration and termination policies and short term and long term incentive arrangements.

The Company will disclose in the Company's Annual Report the number of times the Committee met throughout the relevant reporting period, and the individual attendances of the members of the Committee held throughout the period.

4.2 Chair

The Committee shall appoint any independent director of the Company as the Chair of the Committee.

4.3 Secretary

The Company Secretary shall be the Secretary of the Committee.

5. Committee meetings and processes

5.1 Quorum

A quorum shall be two members. All Committee members and the Secretary should attend each meeting of the Committee. Should a member not be available to attend a meeting, they are to notify the Chair or the Secretary of the Committee.

The Committee may, with the consent of the Chair of the Committee, invite other people to attend meetings as required.

5.2 Meetings and Meeting Frequency

The Committee meetings will be held not less than once a year to enable the Committee to undertake its role effectively. Any member of the Committee may call a meeting of the Committee. Notice will be given to every member of the Committee, of every meeting of the Committee, at the member's advised address (including electronic mail) for service of notice (or such other pre-notified interim address where relevant).

A member must not be present for discussions at a Committee meeting on, or vote on a matter regarding, their own election, re-election, removal, remuneration or a specific remuneration policy that affects them. However, a member who is a Non-Executive Director may be present and vote in relation to the remuneration of all Non-Executive Directors.

The Board will disclose in the Company's Annual Report, or the Corporate Governance Statement, the number of times the Committee met throughout the relevant reporting period and the individual attendances of the members of the Committee at the meetings held throughout the period.

5.3 Voting

Each member shall have one vote. The Chairperson will not have a second or casting vote.

5.4 Reporting

The Secretary of the Committee will circulate an agenda and supporting papers in advance of each meeting and make other arrangements as directed to facilitate information being provided to the Committee.

The Secretary shall circulate the minutes of the meetings of the Committee to all members of the Committee for comment and amendment before being signed by the Chair of the Committee and circulated to the Board with the Board papers for the next Board meeting. The minutes are to be tabled at the Board meeting following the Committee meeting along with any recommendations of the Committee.
