As at the Record Date, unless advised otherwise, there are 258,681,540 Shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding (equivalent to 258,681,540 CDIs), all of which are entitled to vote with respect to the Resolutions set out in this Notice, subject to applicable voting exclusions. Therefore, there is currently, as at the date of this letter, a total of 258,681,540 votes entitled to be cast at the Meeting.

Each Share of Class A Common Stock is entitled to one vote per Share. Each CDI represents 1 Share of Class A Common Stock.

Votes for, against and abstentions will be counted as present and entitled to vote for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is present.

Will any Shareholders be excluded from voting on any of the items?

In accordance with ASX Listing Rule 14.11.1, the Company will disregard certain votes cast on certain resolutions by certain persons. Voting exclusions apply for Resolutions 8 to 13, as set out above in the Notice. The table below notes the Disclosure of Interests in relation to all Resolutions.

How many Shares must be present for voting to hold the Meeting?

Pursuant to Article I, Section 4, of the Company's By-laws, the holders of one-third of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual General Meeting must be present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Shares are counted as present at the Annual General Meeting if:

- the Shareholder of record on the Record Date attends the Meeting in person; or
- the Shareholder of record on the Record Date, or the applicable beneficial owner, has properly submitted a proxy in a timely fashion as set out in this Notice.

What is a proxy?

If you designate another person or entity to vote Shares that you own, such other person or entity is referred to as your proxy. If you designate someone as your proxy in a written document, that document is also called a proxy or proxy card. When you designate a proxy, you may also direct the proxy how to vote your Shares. This is referred to as your "proxy vote".

What is the difference between a Shareholder of record and a “Street Name” holder?

If you own Shares registered directly in your name with the Company’s US share registrar, you are considered the Shareholder of record with respect to those Shares. As a Shareholder of record, you have the right to grant your voting proxy directly to the Company or to vote in person at the Annual General Meeting.

If your Shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by a bank, trust or other nominee, then the broker, trust or other nominee is considered to be the Shareholder of record with respect to those Shares, while you are considered the beneficial owner of those Shares and your Shares are held in street name (Street Name). Street Name holders generally cannot vote their Shares directly and must instead instruct the broker, bank, trust or other nominee how to vote their Shares. Since a Street Name holder is not the Shareholder of record, the Street Name holder may not vote their Shares in person at the Annual General Meeting unless such holder obtains a legal proxy from their applicable broker, bank, trustee or nominee giving such holder the right to vote the Shares at the meeting.

CDN is the Shareholder of record for all Shares beneficially owned by holders of CDIs. Holders of CDIs are entitled to receive the Notice and attend the Annual General Meeting and may direct CDN to vote by using the method described in the CDI Voting Instruction Form.

What does it mean if I receive more than one printed set of proxy materials?

If you receive more than one printed set of proxy materials, it means that you hold Shares registered in more than one account. To ensure that all of your Shares are voted, please submit proxies or voting instructions for all of your Shares.

Can I vote my Shares in person at the meeting?

The Company considers that it is appropriate to hold the Annual General Meeting as a physical only meeting.

To vote in person, attend the Annual General Meeting on the date and at the place set out above.

Even if you currently plan to attend the physical only meeting and vote your Shares at the meeting, we recommend that you submit a proxy so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to attend the meeting. If you submit your vote by proxy and later decide to vote in person at the Annual General Meeting, the vote you submit at the Annual General Meeting will override your proxy vote.

If you are a Street Name holder of Shares, you may vote your Shares in person at the meeting only if you obtain and provide to Automic prior to the meeting a signed letter or other form of proxy from your broker, bank, trust or other nominee giving you the right to vote the Shares at the meeting.

How do I vote my Shares of Class A Common Stock?

Shareholders are entitled to vote if they are a Shareholder on the Record Date regardless of whether they attend the Annual General Meeting.

At the Annual General Meeting, every holder of Class A Common Stock present themselves or by proxy, is entitled to one vote for each Share of Class A Common Stock held on the Record Date on all matters submitted to a vote to the Shareholders.

If you are a Shareholder of record, you can vote in any of the following ways:

The Company would appreciate if proxies can be lodged by 8:30am (AEDT) on Tuesday, 17 November 2026, which will be the timing of the Company reporting its lodged proxy results. However, the Company will continue to accept proxies up to and during the Meeting as noted above for the purposes of voting on resolutions.

How do I vote if I hold CDIs?

If you are a CDI Holder, you must take one of the following actions in order to vote at the Annual General Meeting:

1. Instructing CHES Depositary Nominees Pty Ltd (CDN), as the Shareholder of record, to vote the Shares underlying your CDIs pursuant to your instructions in the CDI Voting Instruction Form provided to Automic Registry.
2. Converting your CDIs into Shares of Class A Common Stock and voting such Shares at the meeting in person (not permitted for this meeting), or by proxy.

Note: In order to vote as a Shareholder in person at the meeting (not permitted for this meeting), such conversion to Class A Common Stock must be completed prior to the Record Date. CDI Holders should contact the Share Registry for information regarding the conversion process. If CDI Holders convert their holding to Class A Common Stock prior to the Record Date, then they may follow the instructions above for voting as a Class A common shareholder.

Each CDI represents 1 Share of Class A Common Stock. Therefore, each CDI Holder will be entitled to one vote for every 1 CDI that they hold through CDN.

How do I vote if I am a Street Name holder?

If you hold your Shares in Street Name, you must vote your Shares or CDIs in the manner set forth by your broker, bank, trust or other nominee, which is similar to the voting procedures for Shareholders of record. You will receive a voting instruction form if nominated as a proxy (not a proxy card) to use in directing your applicable broker, bank, trust or other nominee how to vote your Shares at the meeting.

The Chair intends to vote all open votes in favour of all resolutions, where permitted.
